Fifth Birthday Celebration Open House and Labyrinth Walk

Quad-City Labyrinth Project celebrates its fifth birthday with an Open House and labyrinth walk!

Where & When

Quad-City Labyrinth Project
111 E. Third Street
Mezzanine Level
Davenport, Iowa 52801

January 09, 2007
5:00 PM-8:00 PM

The celebration includes a walk on the Reflection Labyrinth, a dual-path design created by Marty and Debi Kermeen of Labyrinths in Stone. Continuous five-minute introductions will be held for newcomers. Complimentary birthday cake and hot drinks will be served. A drawing will be held for prizes, including the grand prize of a new HP printer.

Take a stroll for body, mind, and soul!

Bald Eagle Days Drawing Winner Announced

Kathleen Farrell is the prize winner of the drawing for the beautiful Chartres-pattern finger labyrinth!

Quad-City Labyrinth Project held a prize drawing for a finger labyrinth kit at Bald Eagle Days Environmental Fair and Wildlife Art Show on January 6-7, 2007. Our lucky prize winner is Kathleen Farrell! Thanks to all of you who stopped by our booth, participated in the drawing, and walked the labyrinth!

Created by Peaceful Endeavours, the Journey of the Heart Personal Labyrinth Experience finger labyrinth kit includes a cloth Chartres-pattern finger labyrinth, a glass bead for path tracing, and suggestions for use. To order your own finger labyrinth kit, contact Peaceful Endeavours at www.peacefulendeavours.com.
