

Fulbright Specialists Program

James Lubben, DSW, MPH
Louise McMahon Ahearn Chair in Social Work
&
Director of Institute on Aging
Boston College

Overview Of Program

- The Fulbright Specialists Program is designed to provide short-term academic opportunities (2-6 weeks) for U.S. faculty and professionals. Shorter grant lengths give specialists greater flexibility to pursue a grant that works best with their current academic or professional commitments.

Sample Fulbright Specialists Activities

- Conduct needs assessments, surveys, institutional or programmatic research
- Take part in specialized academic programs and conferences
- Consult with administrators and instructors on faculty development
- Present lectures at graduate and undergraduate levels

Sample Fulbright Specialists Activities (Continued)

- Participate in or lead seminars or workshops
- Develop and/or assess academic curricula or educational materials
- Conduct teacher-training programs at the tertiary level
- Note: Personal Research is not funded via the Fulbright Specialists Program.

Eligibility Criteria

- U.S. citizen at the time of application. Permanent resident status is not sufficient. If a naturalized citizen, applicant must provide actual date of naturalization.
- For academics, a Ph.D. or equivalent.
- See website for other specific requirements.

NOTE: Limits apply to previous Fulbright Scholar grantees

Terms of the grant

- Grant benefits include international economy fare travel and approved related expenses plus a $200 per day honorarium.
- The honorarium is payable upon completion of the grant and submission of an online final report and travel expense report.
- Host institutions normally cover in-country per diem costs for lodging, meals and transportation.

A Great Opportunity for Social Work Scholars
