Can you prevent drug addiction?

- Values: There are many values in a family that your child needs to know such as; Unity, Love, perseverance and honesty. As a parent you have the ability to make these values attractive to your child, the probability of your child trusting and confiding in you will be greater. “Every parent needs the creativity to in order to help guide their children”
- Open Communication: It is important to spend as much time as you can to listen to your children’s problems, ideas, thoughts and issues. “Talk when you know what to say” and if you don’t know what to say ask someone in order to give them the best possible answer.
- Strong character: Help them develop the character to have the strength to say “NO” when it is needed.
- Education: First, you need to educate yourself and your child about the consequences of drug use and their negative side effects as well as the different types of drugs. Provide them with examples of how destructive drug addiction can be (drinking and driving, brain damage, incarceration, etc.) “Education is the only way out of ignorance”. It is lack of information on the consequence of drug is one of the root causes of drug addiction.
- “Help us to help you by walking with us and/or by making a donation to help prevent drug abuse.”
