

NESHAMA MINYAN
A Sabbath Service with Soul
Friday, Oct 2, 2009, 7:30-8:30pm

Neshama means soul and this will be a soulful service with melodies and compositions by Hassidic composers, including those of the beloved Rabbi Shlomo Carlebach, z'l. Cantor Kripper will offer some of his original melodies, played beautifully by an ensemble of TBS member musicians in a service filled with ruach (spirit), rhythms, singing. This service is accessible and moving to people of all ages and backgrounds. The Neshama Minyan is free and open to the public. An Oneg Shabbat (refreshment) follows services.
